To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is provided as a reference for CSR Heavy Construction, Inc.

Bliss Construction, Inc. has contracted Paul Arcella and CSR Heavy Construction, Inc. on many projects over the past several years. Projects ranged in scope from simple site work development of small commercial projects to complex sites where major earthwork and underground utilities were required. They have also provided complete turn-key site development packages, when requested and have always been helpful when value engineering was required to keep owners costs to a minimum.

The quality of performance, as well as staff and management cooperation from CSR Heavy Construction, Inc., were of the highest standards. The nature of all jobs was completed within agreed upon estimates and all work order changes were discussed first with Bliss Construction management.

In future endeavors, we will consider CSR Heavy Construction, Inc. and give them the highest ranking for referrals and potential job clients.

If any future project personnel would like to discuss previous construction contracts, please feel free to contact me directly.

Best Regards,
